

Monarch IP - Zinc Coated Steel

A premium enclosure and switchboard building system designed to be the ultimate in flexibility.

- Suitable for small motor control applications, lighting, CT metering and small switchboards (to form 2).
- Modular and robust enclosure system with accessories to suit most electrical and industrial application requirements.
- Rear panel is internally secured.
- Flexible mounting options providing the flexibility to install equipment in almost any position.
- Reversible doors (right hand hinging as standard).
- 3-point locking on models 600mm high and above.
- C rail mountings for equipment.
- Mounting pan available as an option.
- Formed in place polyurethane gasket
- Region D wind rated to AS1170.2-2002: Structural design actions – Wind actions.
- Manufactured from 1.6mm thick zinc coated steel.
- Powdercoated Light Grey RAL7035 or X15 Orange.

